Become a Friend of Music in Country Churches

The generous annual support of the Friends sustains and enables the running of Music in Country Churches, and its mission to provide access to high quality music in rural areas of England. Since 1989 the Charity has raised nearly £600,000 to help maintain the fabric of over 55 country churches. We hope that you will join us and support our work.

For a minimum donation of £15 per annum you will receive:

Full details about future concert series in advance of the general public

Two weeks' priority booking

Two newsletters a year updating you on our activities and events

The satisfaction of supporting two key areas of cultural heritage.

If you would like to join the Friends of Music in Country Churches please complete the sections that follow and return this form to the address above.
