The generous annual support of the Friends sustains and enables the running of Music in Country Churches, and its mission to provide access to high quality music in rural areas of England. Since 1989 the Charity has raised nearly £600,000 to help maintain the fabric of over 55 country churches. We hope that you will join us and support our work.

For a minimum donation of £25 per annum you will receive:

The satisfaction of supporting two key areas of cultural heritage.

Full details about future concert series in advance of the general public

Two weeks' priority booking

Two newsletters a year updating you on our activities and events

Friends who donate £75 or more will have their name(s) printed in the season brochure
